

Interview Situations

Melissa Contreras

Situation	What?	How?	Why?	Who?
1	A student at lunchtime in the university	He is eager and walks around to check out some restaurants, trying to read the menus quickly.	Because he doesn't have to much time to eat but he needs something to be full.	A student of second semester who have dietary restrictions and a difficult schedule.
2	A student asking his friends for a good restaurant with low costs.	He doesn't know what cheap restaurants are around the university, so he is confused.	Because he always brings lunch of his house.	A student that needs to save money.
3	A student wants to eat something special because it is his birthday.	He arrives to a restaurant and see the menu, but nothing calls his attention, so he left the place.	Because he wants something new to eat but the restaurant doesn't satisfy those desires.	A student who lunches in the same restaurant all the days.
4	A student searching good new restaurants in his phone.	He is bored because he hasn't found anywhere new to eat well.	Because he's already eaten in all the restaurants around the university. However, the ones he doesn't know are a bit far away, plus he doesn't know if they're good.	A student who loves the culinary and try to eat in different places every day.
